Subject: Look what was sprung on me at church on Sunday!

To: Julia

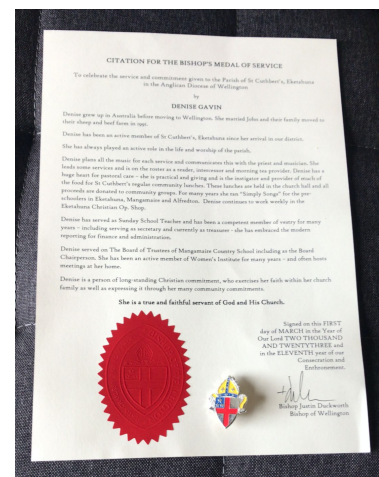

Hello dear Julia,

It was our church's 125th celebration on Sunday, amidst Eketahuna's 150th weekend celebrations. A lovely service with congregation from our other sister parish joining us. 55 there - wow, that is a record for a Sunday service of late.

Anyway, our vicar said they had something to present and then looked at me, did I know about this.....NOOOO and off she went. I felt very humbled and said " but I'm not even an Anglican!!" Am sure my Mum and Dad would have been looking down on me.

It seems funny to be recognised for something that is just second nature to me and something that a lot of others do, but that's OK!!

Love to you, Denise x x
